A Word From Pastor Stephen

Since it is November, I want to use this space in this month of giving thanks to say “thank you”...

First I'd like to thank those of you who are faithfully attending each week. That may seem like a no brainer- and in a sense, it is (or should be). But it is certainly not a small or inconsequential thing.

The expectation and explicit instruction of scripture is that the church (made up of individuals Christians, covenanted together in a local congregation) gather frequently for worship, instruction, fellowship, and equipping for ministry (as the church is called “the bride of Christ, these reasons for gathering are easy to remember by the acronym “w.i.f.e.”) Whenever those in membership are irregular in their attendance, it hinders each of these things-both individually and corporately. That may not be the intent, but it is certainly the reality.

[*As an aside, notice I'm speaking of being “irregular” in attendance. That's not to speak of being out of town occasionally or unavoidable absences that can occur (illness/physical inability, caring for an unwell family member, work schedules, etc.) By “irregular”, I mean regularly making the choice to not gather with the church when it assembles.]

Those of you who make gathering with the body a priority and faithfully attend/participate each week not only reap the spiritual benefits yourself, but you also bless those who have labored to pray, plan, and prepare for you each week (Sunday School teachers, the worship team, pastors). You also bless the entire body by your faithful presence and participation, which is a visible testimony and encouragement to those around you. So thank you!

For those who have been irregular in attendance- remember that regular attendance is simply a matter of choosing to make gathering with the church the priority over other options, unless providentially hindered. And if there is a hindrance to your regular participation, please let us know! We miss you, and we want you here with us!

Thank you to those who are faithfully serving each week. Greeters, media team, nursery workers, Sunday School teachers/assistants, children/student ministry volunteers, hospitality team, musicians, those serving on finance, house & grounds, and other committees, those who regularly serve under the radar- your time, energy, and service is an immeasurable blessing to this church. So much that we do as a church could not and would not happen if we did not have church members stepping up and stepping in to fill these ministry needs. The deacon body- literally those men set aside to be the lead servants in the church- also have an important role in helping the church function effectively and efficiently. I am thankful to all of you who serve the Lord by serving his body!

Thank you to those who are faithfully giving regularly. As I have shared with you before, I have instructed those who handle the finances of the church to never tell me who has given to the church or how much anyone has given. Because of this, I have no idea how much anyone gives to the church except for my own family. I know that our church family is made up of people all over the spectrum- from those on fixed income, to single parent homes, those struggling to make ends meet, to those who, in the Lord's providence, are at a different place financially. But I am thankful that the church's financial needs are supported by all of those who give faithfully.

The New Testament standard for giving is to be generous. For some, generous giving looks one way. For others, another way. But the fact remains, that since 2019, FBC has consistently given generously so that we have been able to come in at or under our budgeted needs each year and we consistently give abundantly to missions and ministry causes. So to everyone who gives faithfully, generously, and sacrificially - thank you!

Thank you to those who are faithfully praying for FBC. Praying for the church and its ministries on the whole. Praying for individual needs and concerns. Praying that the church would continue to grow in health and fruitfulness. Praying for the lost to be saved. For the saved to live joyfully, faithfully, and intentionally. Praying for your pastors. Praying for our reach in the community and the world. Praying for our effective witness as we go to our workplaces, schools, social gatherings, etc. All of these things are completely dependent on the Lord to sovereignly intervene and empower. You do not pray in vain. Thank you for praying faithfully- please don't stop!

We have much to be thankful for at FBC. Join me this month and beyond in regularly giving thanks to the Lord for all he has done, is doing, and will do in and through his church- by his grace and for his glory!

As always, I am working with you for your joy, progress, and maturity in the faith. I LOVE YOU, FBC !
