A Word From Pastor Stephen

For Christmas, we gave each household a copy of the very short little book "Listen Up!"- a short guide on how to get the most out of listening to the sermon each week. (If you didn't get a copy, contact the church office and we will get you one).

This past week, we put out "scripture journals" for the book of Ephesians- small journals that include a page of biblical text on one side with a blank page across from the page of text for you to take notes, write down questions, etc. We have a limited number of these available in the sanctuary- first come, first served!

The reason we have given you these tools is because we hope that in 2025 every church member will grow in their understanding of the importance of their role in listening to God's word being preached. Listening to a sermon shouldn't be a passive activity- sermon listeners should come ready and prepared! As Christopher Ash writes in "Listen Up!"

How to listen to a sermon? You may think, "What a silly subject!" After all, it would be pointless to write on "how to watch TV." And listening to a sermon is even easier than watching TV, since I don't have to deal with the remote control. It's a passive activity, something preached to me, not something I actively do. Ah, but it's not. After the parable of the sower, Jesus says: "Consider carefully how you listen" (Luke 8:18). He says if we listen in one way, we will be given more, but if we listen in another way, even what we think we have will be taken from us. It's a life-and-death business, listening to sermons. So let us consider carefully how to listen.

The scriptures are the word of God, and a Biblical sermon has as its purpose to make the text known, explain what it means, and apply it to our lives. It's true that the preacher needs to do his part in preparing and delivering the sermon (please pray for me each week in this if you don't already- I need the Lord's help!). But it is also true that even if the best preachers deliver their best sermons they will have much smaller impact if the people do not listen well or rightly. So let's work together- preacher and congregation, to make the most out of our time in God's word together each week.

I love the Getty hymn we sometimes sing, "Speak O Lord". May it be our prayer each week as we "listen up"...

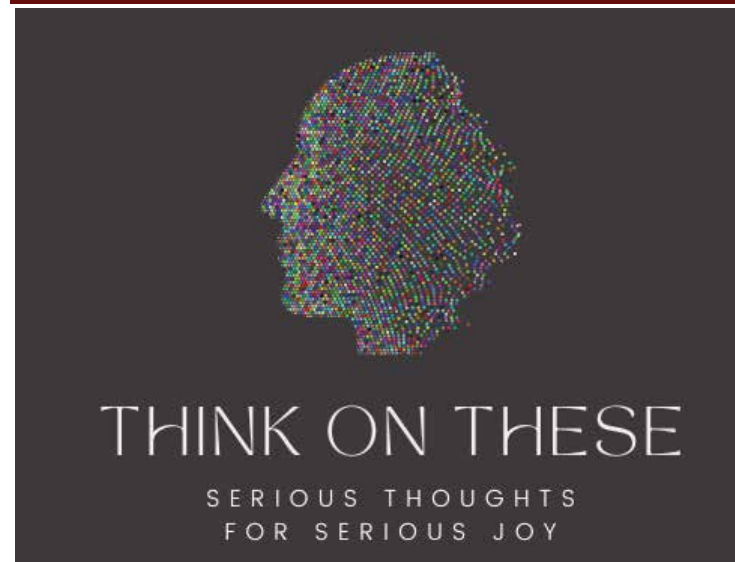

*Speak, O Lord, as we come to You to receive the food of Your holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us- shape and fashion us in Your likeness.
That the light of Christ might be seen today in our acts of love and our deeds of faith.
Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us all Your purposes for Your glory!
Teach us, Lord, full obedience, holy reverence, true humility.
Test our thoughts and our attitudes in the radiance of Your purity.
Cause our faith to rise, cause our eyes to see Your majestic love and authority.
Words of power that can never fail- let their truth prevail over unbelief!
Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds- help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us.
Truths unchanged from the dawn of time, that will echo down through eternity.
And by grace, we'll stand on Your promises. And by faith, we'll walk as You walk with us.
Speak, O Lord, 'til Your church is built and the earth is filled with Your glory!*

As always, I am working with you for your joy, progress, and maturity in the faith.
I LOVE YOU, FBC

A Note From Pastor Alex Robinson

Church family, I have started a podcast called "Think on These" where I am seeking to encourage listeners to think on the glorious things all summed up in Christ that are found in Philippians 4:8 through interviews and other episodes where I talk on subjects ranging from the Christian life, theology, and practical biblical application for our lives. It is available on Apple Podcasts, Spotify and YouTube.

Mark your Calendars! Equip the Saints Missions conference coming April 27-30th. The conference will be led by our pastors alongside guest contributors. Be in prayer for this time we will share together being equipped with how we can faithfully play our part in God's global purpose.
